ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To everyone who loves nature and animals.

To my mother, Hiezza Rossetti, who taught me Astrology when I was a little girl, and is always there for me in my best and worst times of my life. Her unconditional love made me understand nature and be a better human being.

PREFACE

I learned Astrology from my mother, Hiezza Rossetti, when I was a little girl. She taught me that the planets, angles, houses, and horoscope signs influence us a great deal on how we behave and act.

She was always right on her astrological analysis, and from her knowledge, I started applying her teachings on my own life.

I come from a family who puts animals above human beings, and of course, astrology isn't just for two-legged creatures. Whether it's your cat, dog, fish or horse, all beings are influenced by the planets.

If the moon influences the ocean tides, crops, pregnancies, and our moods, it will also influence our pets.

After 25 years analyzing so many astrological charts, I decided to write this book and teach people alternative ways to increase the harmony between their pets and them.

Keep in mind that this book is an overall astrological analysis for pets. To really know their astrological chart in details, we need to know their place, time, and date they were born. If you don't know your pet's birthday you can watch his behavior for sometime and figure out which sign your is based on the sign descriptions in this book.

This book gives me a great sense of satisfaction to bring people closer to their animals and how well they "match" their owners' signs.

Enjoy this book!

YOUR PET'S HOROSCOPE

Astrology is a relationship between astronomical phenomena and events in the animal world. It predicts aspects of our personality or life history based on the positions of the sun, moon, and other planetary objects at the time of our birth.

Astrology plays an important part and role in your pet's life. If you know his birthday, you could determine how astrology affects his character and identify the reasons for certain behaviors and anticipate their reactions.

Here are some advantages of knowing your pet's horoscope sign:

- Gain insight into your pet's nature
- Learn about their character traits and feelings
- Understand their physical & emotional vulnerabilities
- Determine the best time to train your pet
- Enhance compatibility with your family & other pets
- Keep your pet happier

Comparing two astrological charts, known as Synastry, can determine how well you will get along with your pet and areas that could come into conflict.

This book will give you a basic compatibility analysis between you and your pet. But before going into your compatibility with your pet, you should understand your pet's horoscope sign, his behavior, health tendencies, and personality characteristics. So, pay attention to details when reading your the pet's horoscope signs characteristics. It will help you to better understand the compatibility between you and your pet.

This book is a fun way to learn more about you and your pet.

GEMINI

MAY 22 TO JUNE 21

BEHAVIOR – Gemini pets are ruled by Mercury and Air. Gemini pets like to entertain their masters and get the attention of outsiders very easily. They are active, energetic, playful, good eaters, and great hunters. They also socialize well with humans and other pets.

Gemini pets are curious, and usually curiosity gets them into troubles. They are sociable and hate being alone. They are fast learners and can be trained easily. They are charming, very domestic and sensitive. Sometimes they have a tendency to run away. Remember to always keep the door shut. Gemini pets rarely have favorites. They just love the company of everyone.

These pets love to communicate and report what is happening in the neighborhood. Cats can be just as verbal as dogs when it comes to expressing themselves. The Gemini pets are natural born instigators. Everything happens fast for them - these animals eat fast, walk fast, and continually move from one thing to the next.

They are very independent and want nothing to do with cuddling. And finally, it's safe to say your Gemini pet will never cease to amaze you and will provide countless hours of fun

HEALTH – Pay particular attention to your pet's paws or legs, as these areas may be weak spots for them.

PERSONALITY CHARACTERISTICS:

- "Talk" a lot...bark, meow, chirp, sing, scream...
- Active, agile, and very curious
- Not very emotional
- Enjoy learning new tricks and are fast learners
- Have a difficult time keeping still, always moving

- Good mood, with a desire to engage others in fun
- Expressive and sparkling eyes
- Not consistent and quick tempered
- Short attention span and appear to run on nervous energy
- Friendly and sociable
- Small appetite

LEO

JULY 24 TO AUGUST 23

BEHAVIOR – Leo pets are ruled by Sun and Fire. They are born leaders and love to be spoiled. Leo pets love compliments, massages, and all the pampering you can give them. They like their place clean and are brave animals. They don't like to be alone. Leo pets are wonderful with other pets and people as long as they are the leader of the group.

They are friendly, gregarious, faithful and demand their owner's attention 24 hours a day specially if there are other pets in the household. Nobody dares to challenge their authority.

Leo pets love a good adventure, so make each outside walk an event because they also very curious. They love children and make perfect pets. They are very protective and would gladly give their lives for yours. Leo pets have a long memory and tend to have a long life span. Treat them kindly and they will remain friends for life.

They want and demand only the best. So, if a guest in your house has a warm lap, they will end up there and nobody will change their minds. They are also very stubborn.

HEALTH – Avoid putting these pets under stress and anxiety. They may have heart problems. So, be sure your Leo pet gets enough

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 24 TO NOVEMBER 23

BEHAVIOR – Scorpio pets are ruled by Pluto and Water. Scorpio pets are beautiful and usually have a nice coat. Dogs like to play with water or even swim. Scorpion pets can be jealous. They are loyal and very entertaining.

Kindness shown to these animals in early age will come back to you for the rest of their pet life. If they are mistreated early in life, gaining their trust back will be a long and involved process. They are attached to their homes and have the ability to read people's mind. They easily sense danger.

Scorpio pets are intimidating to other animals. Rarely they back down from a confrontation. They are full of energy and need to run around a lot to release it. Keep a close watch on them because they are possessive and have a tendency to fight.

You never know where your things are with this sign. If you make them mad, you can expect your things to be taken and hidden. They love to play cat and mouse games. Anything where they can go for the kill is fun for them. This is the cat that brings home the dead creatures.

One of the most stubborn signs of the zodiac, they will not be pushed into something they do not want to do.

HEALTH – They are subject to skin allergies, so beware of perfumes and soaps.

PERSONALITY CHARACTERISTICS:

- Very loyal, friendly, quiet, and independent
- Analyze or observe situations without reacting
- Rarely become angry, but can be vicious when angry
- Emotionally distant at times
- Extremely determined and cannot be diverted

- Sometimes difficult to understand
- Mysterious in character
- Intense and magnetic personality
- Very stubborn and/or manipulative
- Extremely intuitive
- Intelligent and/or clever
- Learn quickly but only do what they want to learn
- Sometimes annoyed by the presence of other animals
- Great hunters

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 24 - DECEMBER 22

BEHAVIOR - Sagittarius pets are ruled by Jupiter and Fire. Sagittarius pets are fun and loving pets, and they are always eager to please. They are one of the most loving pets in the Zodiac, so expect a face full of wet kisses when you walk through the door. They are also fast learners.

They love the outdoors, so be sure to give them space to play. If you keep them inside for long periods of time, they may become depressed. They love to go out into the neighborhood and meet new people and animals.

Sagittarius pets are full of energy and with strong nerves. They find great pleasure in making others laugh. They easily get into troubles because of their clumsy nature. They love to be loved and give back the same to their owner. Sagittarius pets are cowards and mostly run out of any serious fight but they like adventure.

They are intelligent animals but may seem to lack common sense. When they get over excited they become quite forgetful.

Sagittarius pets are very playful. They love to catch balls, play tug-a-war, chase squirrels and generally love anything to do with activity. Finally, the Sagittarius pets are great with kids.

HEALTH – They are subjected to circulatory and hip problems.

PERSONALITY CHARACTERISTICS:

- Great mood, talkative, and affectionate
- Physically active and very energetic
- Love being outdoors and play with kids
- Noble by nature
- Don't like to pick a fight, although angry if provoked
- Short attention span
- Becomes bored easily
- Daring and fearless
- Curious
- Restless
- Extremely obedient
- Always ready to go somewhere
- Often difficult to control

COMPATIBILITY

Now it's time to get to know how you and your pet will get along. Remember we are talking about pet-person compatibility and your pet has stronger instincts than you do. Since we are the ones responsible for them, it's up to us to love these pets with our hearts. They always give us unconditional love.

I will give you the basic compatibility analysis between you and your pet based on emotional and energy level.

There is no bad compatibility with an animal. Yes, we may have some challenges, but love will always overcome them.

So, if you know the sign of your pet, find out how compatible you both are. Or, if you are thinking about getting a new pet, check which pet sign would be more compatible to yours.

GEMINI PET OWNERS & OTHER PETS SIGNS

The sign Gemini indicates communication, connections of all kinds and relationships of short duration. Gemini people are open but sometimes moody.

Quote: “I Communicate”

Check below how compatible you are with pets from different signs, including yours.

Gemini – Aries (Air - Fire)

This duo has certain things in common, but you choose to express it in different ways. Aries pets can be aggressive in going about getting what they want, while Gemini is more versatile and laid back, happy to go along for the ride. You both are self-assured, and you make a very good team when you both have the same goals in mind.

Gemini easily adapts to the Aries pet character. Most likely, Aries pets and Gemini will communicate well with each other. You both live for the moment. A promise of great excitement and entertainment!

Gemini – Taurus (Air - Earth)

Possessive Taurus pets want to keep Gemini owners all to themselves. But Taurus pets are patient and that will help things come together in the long-term. On the plus side, Gemini's sociable ways are beneficial to Taurus even when Taurus pets don't feel like getting out and mingling. The Gemini person will help break the ice.

Taurus pets are easily enchanted by Gemini's liveliness, and Gemini owner finds their Taurus pal to provide the stability he or she may lack. This is a win win pet-human relationship.

Gemini - Gemini (Air - Air)

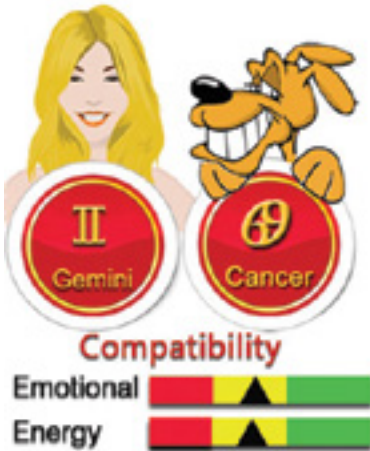

When a dual sign meets up with its alter ego, anything can happen! Physically, you are both agile and flexible, which makes you a pair that likes to get outside and do things together, whether it's going for walks or something more vigorous.

Emotionally, you can both be quite restless. There are no problems you can't overcome; you can count on each other. Yes, we're talking about a pet, but those intellectual eyes have you almost believing your pet is human sometimes!

Gemini – Cancer (Air - Water)

You might not understand each other right away, but that's okay – just keep trying! Gemini's logical approach doesn't always mix with Cancer's emotional side, but the more time you spend with each other, the more you can learn.

Cancer pets hope to find a stable, comfortable home with a family and in return these pets provide great cheerfulness. One thing this pet relationship can teach you is that just because you're looking at life from two different directions doesn't mean you can't meet somewhere in the middle and be happy.

Gemini – Leo (Air - Fire)

There is a fun, playful energy between you and your pet. The more time you spend together, the closer you feel to each other. Gemini curiosity is never satisfied, and Leo pets are full of surprises. They do tend to want to hog most of the spotlight, but that's mostly okay with Gemini.

Gemini pet owners are attentive and always make up for the times when Leo is distracted or putting on a show. When you explore the world together, it makes more sense than when you do it alone!

Gemini – Virgo (Air - Earth)

Virgo pets take things a little too seriously for a Gemini person, and to Virgo, Gemini seems like all they want to do is play! Luckily we're talking about a pet, not a spouse, so there is very little "team decision-making" to be done, but it still means that you'll have to do some work before you can form a cohesive team with your pet.

You make a solid mental team as long as you get the head games out of the way early on. You and your pet understand each other's desires, which are real affinities and an inexhaustible potential for happiness.

Gemini – Libra (Air - Air)

There's a real mutual admiration between the two of you, and while you may not always see eye to eye, Libra pets won't be the one to hold a grudge, as they aim to keep the peace at all times.

When Air meets Air, love is a breeze. This refreshing, carefree duo sparkles with optimism. Gemini's social way reinforces Libra elegance. They love communication, outdoors, and surprises. In any case, your daily life together with your Libra pet is such a joy you can become inseparable.

Gemini – Scorpio (Air - Water)

What a contrast! Airy Gemini and mysterious Scorpio are bound to be an eccentric pair, delighting in their differences. Scorpio pets may do everything in their power to force you, Gemini, into compliance.

Scorpios pets are rarely powerless, but they hold a soft spot in their hearts for the charm of Gemini. Manipulation is often a dynamic in this relationship, but it doesn't have to be the main one. Mutual respect also plays a big part in this successful person-pet relationship. Scorpion pets are intense and intuitive creatures, trusting instinct more surely than reason. You evolve together with a harmony of purpose, curiosity, and appetite.

Gemini – Sagittarius (Air - Fire)

Sagittarius pets love to explore and be the first to see new sights, and Gemini keeps their eyes wide open, staying alert to potential dangers in the road ahead.

This pairing of pet and human can be a truly great one as long as there is clear communication. Both of you have to know exactly what the other one expects, or you could end up getting lost, literally and figuratively. On the other hand, you and your Sagittarius pet will radiate a fresh youthful feeling, which will attract a horde of friends to share in and magnify your happiness.

Gemini – Capricorn (Air - Earth)

Your approach to life is, how do you say – very different! Gemini is laid-back and easygoing, and Capricorn pets are not. Hard work and full effort is of the utmost importance to a Capricorn pet, and to Gemini pet owner, well not so much!

This pet-human dynamic isn't necessarily doomed, but it takes a lot of compromise to make it work. Capricorn pets give mercurial Gemini some needed security. A Capricorn pet knows you will never abandon him or her, and that is what counts!

Gemini – Aquarius (Air - Air)

You love to spend time together and very little of that time is wasted. Neither of you like to sit still, so you will probably be playing a game or out doing something with your Aquarius pet. Freedom is also an important thing to both of you, although Gemini likes emotional freedom with Aquarius, freedom often means actual physical distance from their human or pet pals.

Reunions are always sweet, however, as absence definitely makes your hearts grow fonder. You and your pet will unite your souls in making your lives into a masterpiece, a great and exciting adventure.

Gemini – Pisces (Air - Water)

Gemini and Pisces can be a great pet-human mix. Gemini is the more gregarious and outgoing of the pair, and Pisces is more than content to let Gemini take the lead. Gemini may have a bit too much energy for their sedentary Pisces pal, but that doesn't mean there aren't activities the two of you can enjoy together.

The more time you spend together by the water, the perkier your Pisces pet will be! Pisces pets seek absolute love and emotional intensity. This could be a very interesting pet-person relationship.

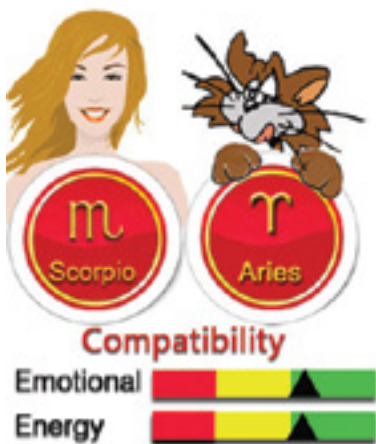

SCORPIO PET OWNERS & OTHER PETS SIGNS

The sign Scorpio is associated with all things sexual and secretly private. Also all matters of a business nature, like cutting through the red-tape, getting rid of excess and being extremely intuitive.

Quote: “I Sense”

Check below how compatible you are with pets from different signs, including yours.

Scorpio – Aires (Water - Fire)

You like talking and communicating with your Aries pet. You have a knack for bringing out the best in him. He feels your genuine support and enjoys himself when he's in your presence. He knows that he can be himself with you. Your pet is with you 100%.

This is about as close to a mutual admiration as any two are likely to get. Your Aries pet is very supportive of you. Sometimes your Aries pet, isn't always quite sure what to make of your mood. Scorpios aren't likely to be forthcoming with what's going through their mind, and the more your Aries pet tries to figure it out, the less likely it is to happen. For the most part, this is a very nice relationship.

Scorpio – Taurus (Water - Earth)

Compatibility

There's an intense energy between the Taurus pet and Scorpio person that's undeniable, but you have to work on your relationship to make sure it's the best it can be. Being on opposite sides on the Zodiac you both have the missing elements of the other's personality. Scorpio person may be vengeful at times, but Taurus can calm the Scorpion down.

It is a great potential for domestic success. Both love music and should spend time together. You understand how to move your Taurus pet to get out of himself and experience new things.

Scorpio – Gemini (Water - Air)

Compatibility

What a contrast! Airy Gemini and mysterious Scorpio are bound to be an eccentric pair, delighting in their differences. Scorpions are rarely powerless, but they hold a soft spot in their hearts for the charm of Gemini. Manipulation is often a dynamic in this relationship, but it doesn't have to be the main one. Mutual respect also plays a big part in this successful person-pet relationship. Gemini pets love the companionship of Scorpion people and they will get Scorpions moving.

You and your Gemini pet evolve together with a harmony of purpose, curiosity and appetite. This pet-person relationship will radiate a fresh youthful feeling, which will attract a horde of friends to share in and magnify your happiness.

Scorpio – Cancer (Water -Water)

Compatibility

Even though we're talking about a pet-human relationship, there is a lot of depth here. Cancer pets are sensitive and hate being left alone. You seem to instinctively know when something is bothering your Cancer pet, and vice versa. When you look into your pet companion's eyes, you would swear there's something beyond the typical animal's basic thoughts going on behind them.

You also share a fierce loyal instinct with your pet; you protect each other at all costs. Cancer and Scorpio share a common craving; the love for each other.

Scorpio – Leo (Water - Fire)

Compatibility

Leo loves to shine, while Scorpio is happy to be in the background. Scorpio humans are loyal and very entertaining. Leo likes to be loud and put them out there for the world to see. They love a good adventure, so make each outside walk an event because they also very curious.

While not exact opposites, Leo and Scorpio do struggle to find something in common. Loyalty is where you meet in the middle. Once you're in a pet-human relationship, you're both committed to making it work no matter what! Together, you reach the heights of bliss.

Scorpio – Virgo (Water - Earth)

Compatibility

You have a strong emotional bond with your pet, and neither one of you feels the need to show it off, you know what you have is special. There's really no need to prove it to anyone else. You both love to analyze a situation before jumping into it and because you are so in tune with what each other wants, which is oftentimes privacy, you rarely embarrass each other.

You and your pet can observe, and show mutual respect for each other. A sixth sense lets your Virgo pet know when you are unhappy or sick. You will find the Virgo pet to be loyal and faithful to you.

Scorpio – Libra (Water - Air)

Compatibility

This human-pet relationship is never boring. Libra pets can be emotional yet intelligent, while Scorpio tends to be a bit more patient and likes to be in control more than Libra. Libra puts everything out there, for the most part, but Scorpio pets hangs back and lets others wonder what they're up to. You can have a lot of fun together as long as your Libra pet doesn't insist on keeping his superficial feelings.

The Libra preoccupation with commitment is compatible with the Scorpio's possessiveness. Their journey through life together may be long and passionate.

Scorpio – Scorpio (Water - Water)

Oh boy! If there ever was an obsessive pair, it's the two of you. You are both rather secretive, jealous creatures. If you both choose to use those tactics against the other, this can be a disastrous relationship. If you have more than one pet in the house, make sure your Scorpio pet gets lots of love. They can turn on you if they think your affections for them aren't as strong as they are for the others. This pet-person relationship is a match!

Kindness shown to these animals at an early age will come back to you for the rest of their pet life.

Also, if you have a Scorpio dog, make sure his in contact with water.

Scorpio – Sagittarius (Water - Fire)

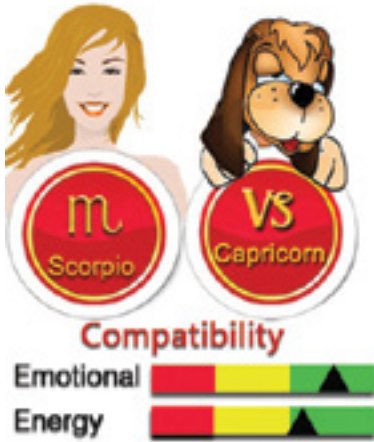

You probably waited a long time to find your pet and now that you've found each other, you want to go full speed ahead. Scorpios need time to be completely comfortable with others and Sagittarius has a tendency to try to push Scorpios into situations before they are ready. So, whether you've just found each other or have been living together for years, try to take a slow approach to new things.

Remember that Sagittarius pets are fun and loving pets and they are always eager to please. So, show your Scorpio intensity to your Sagittarius pet, you won't regret it!

Scorpio – Capricorn (Water - Earth)

The beginning of this relationship can be unbalanced due to a lack of trust, but once you've proven yourself worthy to the other you will be on track. Capricorn pets are stubborn and moody at times. Scorpio tends to hold emotions close to themselves.

Capricorn pets are loyal and they will be careful with a Scorpio person. However, these pets will let you know when something is not as it should be. If you are patient and loving, your pet will be always by your side. This pet-person relationship can reach great heights.

Scorpio – Aquarius (Water - Air)

This is an interesting match. Aquarius pets are free spirits and Scorpio people are more reserved. Aquarius pets like to get out and mingle. In a pet-human match you should watch out for signs of possessiveness on the part of Scorpio and extreme nonchalance from Aquarius. If either of these appears, it's time to work on the relationship!

The Aquarius flees emotional commitment, whereas the Scorpio swears by it. However they respect each other and share a longing for extraordinary experiences. Intuition and cleverness help this pet-person relationship to survive.

Scorpio – Pisces (Water - Water)

Compatibility

Both are Water signs. You and your pet have a true understanding of each other. You can tell where the other is coming from, although no actual words are exchanged between you. You could swear sometimes you know what your animal friend is thinking.

You both tend to live inside of your heads, too. So, quiet time spent together, just the two of you, is better than going to crowded places or living in overly busy households.

Sensitive and instinctive, Scorpio and Pisces have a mutual affinity only rarely encountered in the zodiac. They may be devoted to one another body and soul.

PISCES PET OWNERS & OTHER PETS SIGNS

The sign Pisces indicates those areas of life where we are most understanding, and accepting. Willing to give themselves and sacrifice for the sake of making progress. Pisces are also intuitive and sensitive.

Quote: “I Accept”

Check below how compatible you are with pets from different signs, including yours.

Pisces – Aries (Water - Fire)

This could be a very active and intense relationship. Pisces have a fleeting and almost solitary spirit which may provoke the Aries pet’s authoritarian tendencies. Pisces readily submit to domination, since you are submerged in an inner world where reality has little effect.

The Aries pets are independent and you may find that you are always pushing your Aries pet to do things. You never know what to expect from him. He probably finds this exciting and will play with you. There is a strong magnetic attraction between both of you emotionally and physically. Give your Aries pet the deserved attention and you will have a friend for life.

Pisces – Taurus (Water - Earth)

At your best you have a loving and sympathetic relationship. At your worst you are simply tolerating each other. Taurus pets like to be spoiled with attention. Pisces are more simplistic and quiet, which can lead to misunderstandings. Pisces also tends to be a little distant, like they're mentally somewhere else. Because Taurus pets have very little chance of finding out where they've gone to, it leads to frustration. But they get along perfectly!

Remember that Taurus pets love to eat and they link food to love. So, when he feels jealous and neglected give him a treat. The outlook for love is promising.

Pisces – Gemini (Water - Air)

Gemini and Pisces can be a great pet-human mix. Gemini pets are the more gregarious outgoing of the pair. Pisces is more than content to let Gemini take the lead. Gemini pet may have a bit too much energy for their sedentary Pisces owner, but that doesn't mean there aren't activities the two of you can enjoy together.

You both match well. Remember that Gemini pets are very communicative and social. So, the more time you spend out together the perkier Gemini pet will be!

Pisces – Cancer (Water - Water)

Cancer and Pisces are great pet-human mix. Both are water and very emotional. None of you are afraid of showing your feelings. Cancer pets are the more gregarious and outgoing of the pair. Pisces is more than content to let Cancer take the lead. Pisces seek absolute love and emotional intensity with their pets.

This could be a very interesting pet-person relationship. Your personalities are great for a lifetime relationship. Give lots of love to your Cancer pet. You won't regret it

Pisces – Leo (Water - Fire)

Leo pets are strong and outgoing. Pisces are quiet and introspective. Yet, though you may seem like you have opposite natures you're really both dreamers at heart. The one thing that may form a wedge between the two of you is Pisces's desire to be reclusive versus Leo's need to see and be seen. If you can reach a compromise in this area, this can be a fruitful pet-human relationship. Pisces are gentle and loving. You will stop what you are doing in order to please your pet.

Both thrill to the feeling of unconditional love. Leo pets remain by the Pisces's side. It's a sign of true emotional fulfillment.

Pisces – Virgo (Water - Earth)

Compatibility

Being opposite each other in the Zodiac you each have qualities that the other lacks. Virgo pets are very intelligent and fast learners. You should always teach new things to your Virgo pet. Pisces are very sensitive, emphatic and easily sense their pet's mood. While this can be a harmonious animal-human friendship Virgo pets shouldn't expect too much from Pisces owners.

Pisces has a sweet temperament and they sense the Virgo's desires intuitively, but their ambition doesn't come close to what Virgo wants to accomplish. A sense of love is one of the gifts both individuals possess.

Pisces – Libra (Water - Air)

Compatibility

This isn't the most exciting pet-human match, but it can be a comfortable one. Libra pets love to be in a peaceful environment and so does Pisces. So, the quieter the better for the two of you. Spending time in noisy places like a crowded park or bustling city street isn't the best way for you to bond.

Indecision is your biggest problem. When you come to a fork in the road, it might take you both a while to decide which way you want to go. As long as you respect each other, this pet-human relationship can be great for life!

Pisces – Scorpio (Water - Water)

Compatibility

Both being Water signs, you have a true understanding of each other. You can tell what is going on, although no actual words are exchanged between you. You could swear you know what your animal friend is thinking. You both tend to live inside of your heads. Quiet time spent together, just the two of you, is preferable to going to crowded places or living in overly busy households.

Sensitive and instinctive, Scorpio and Pisces have a mutual affinity only rarely encountered in the zodiac. They may be devoted to one another body and soul.

Pisces – Sagittarius (Water - Fire)

Compatibility

Sagittarius is the protector. Pisces is the dreamer. You are both idealistic and tend to see a potentially new situation from a positive point of view. But Sagittarius is much more likely to charge ahead while Pisces waits in the wings to see if everything is going to turn out okay.

Sagittarius pets love for going places doesn't always match with Pisces reclusive style. A compromise every now and then is all it takes to keep your human-pet relationship in balance. Talk to your Sagittarius pet when you feel he is too excited to do something.

Pisces – Capricorn (Water - Earth)

You and your pet are the very definition of “opposites attract!” Capricorn pets are logical and reasonable. Pisces is off in his own little dream world most of the time. Capricorn wants to do things and play, Pisces says, “It can wait until later.”

Despite your differences, the two of you form a very sincere and dedicated team. When you’re apart you miss each other immensely. The profound Pisces sensitivity gravitates toward a solid Capricorn pet. This can be a very special and satisfying relationship.

Pisces – Aquarius (Water - Air)

Pisces is the dreamer. Aquarius is the dreamer and the doer. You get along great when you’re looking for adventure or trying to come up with solutions to typical pet-human problems.

Given your language barrier, the communication between the two of you might be a bit strained. However if you pay close attention to nonverbal clues you should be able to read each other quite well. Aquarius pets manage to work up a little warmth and tenderness; the pair can evolve towards great relationship of accomplishments. It’s a matter of balance and availability. Pisces demands little time, which is perfect for the busy Aquarius pet.

Pisces – Pisces (Water - Water)

Congratulations - you found your perfect pet match! You are both dreamers and see the world in your own sensitive way. If anything, you're both a little too sensitive, so be careful not to go to sleep mad at each other.

You'll have your ups and downs but because Pisces are known for their sensitivity and gentleness you'll never stay mad for long. Your pet loves to be touched and you benefit just as much from tactile interaction with your animal pal.
